Om Republic - women's activewear

Om Republic is a new line of women's activewear for yoga, pilates, and dance. The apparel is distinguished by clean lines, flattering styles and subtle details that add an interesting twist. About one-third of the Om Republic line showcases what founder-designer Min calls "modern Oriental chic" – an aesthetic never before seen in the activewear market – reflecting the Eastern roots of the company and the founder-designer's heritage and first love: Chinese classical dance. Rooted in wellness and grounded in environmental sustainability, Om Republic garments are made from organic cotton, with a touch of spandex for stretch.
